

German Department Writing Center

Who should use the German Writing Center?

All students enrolled in German courses ranging from Beginning to Advanced who have questions on writing, grammar, or structure at any stage in the writing process.

How do I contact the Writing Center?

- Consult our CANVAS site for availability regarding slots and sign up through the site. <https://canvas.northwestern.edu/courses/28062>
- Write to germanwritingcenter@northwestern.edu or izeller@northwestern.edu to be enrolled in the site.
- Sign up through the electronic sign-up feature on CANVAS for 30 or 60 minute appointments as early as you know that you would like a consultation.

THE SOONER THE BETTER!

How do I prepare for the session?

- Try to identify aspects that need work and that you would like to discuss.
- Send an electronic copy of the document before you come to your session.
- Include directions from the instructor on the assignment as available.
- Bring a paper copy to your session.

What happens during the session?

- You will receive comments on grammar, structure, styles, and vocabulary via symbols and a color code.
- We will discuss representative points in your essay.
- We will plan future appointments to continue discussing your work.

What can I expect from the sessions?

- Improvement of writing skills in German, including effective use of grammatical structures, stylistic devices, and an expanded range of vocabulary.
- Effective use of resources.
- Rather than a quick fix, expect an ongoing learning process!

Also watch out for announcements of workshops, projects, and other information!

Ingrid Zeller • izeller@northwestern.edu • germanwritingcenter@northwestern.edu •
Kresge Hall 3-331 • 1880 Campus Drive • Department of German

<https://www.german.northwestern.edu/news-events/writing-center.html>