Check out the German Writing Center!!!

The Writing Center in the German Department is a forum for individuals who have specific concerns and questions regarding German writing or grammar in the context of an assignment, paper, or project. It also provides opportunities for those who want to be one, two, or more steps ahead and to increase their knowledge of the German language. Please consult our CANVAS site at this address <https://canvas.northwestern.edu/courses/28062> to sign up for appointments and to access resources on writing and grammar and other relevant information. To enroll, please write to germanwritingcenter@northwestern.edu or izeller@northwestern.edu! Announcements regarding workshops and other projects and events will be posted there and in the Department.

The Writing Center is located in Kresge Hall 3-331, 1880 Campus Drive and is open on:

Tuesday 10 am – 2 pm and by appointment
Thursday 1 pm – 5 pm and by appointment

PLEASE NOTE: On selected Fridays from 3 pm - 4 pm, WORKSHOPS on specific topics based on student suggestions are given and questions are discussed in the German Seminar Room, Kresge Hall, 3354.

For individual appointments at the Writing Center, please

- write to germanwritingcenter@northwestern.edu or Ingrid Zeller at izeller@northwestern.edu or consult our CANVAS Site for availability regarding slots. Write to the same addresses to be enrolled in the site. <https://canvas.northwestern.edu/courses/28062>
- sign up through the electronic sign-up feature on Canvas for 30 or 60 minute appointments.
- send electronic copies of your text and the assignment as soon as they become available.
- expect to receive comments on structure, grammar, vocabulary and style via symbols and a color system, which we will discuss with the goal of coming up with solutions together.
- expect this to be a learning process to improve your writing skills.

Check back regularly for news, workshops, events, and resources!
