BEGINNING GERMAN

This is an intensive 2-unit elementary German course that covers the material in German 101-2 and 101-3 during Spring Quarter. Many students in this course are continuing from the special course the department offered during Winter Quarter (German 101-1 MTuThF 3 or 4 p.m.) and there are others who began learning German in high school or who finished the first quarter of the 101 sequence at Northwestern. German 101-2 takes place from Monday, March 28- Tuesday, April 26 and German 101-3 takes place from Thursday, April 28 - Tuesday, May 31. We will continue to focus on developing proficiency in all four language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing, while using the culture and history of the German speaking countries as basic source materials. German 101-2 We will work more with texts this quarter and will be reading some poetry from Heinrich Heine and Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. Preparations during the quarter lead up to an interview with an invited guest from Germany. (Mystery Guest).
