FOCUS SPEAKING: CURRENT GERMAN AND AMERICAN IMAGES

This course is designed to enhance the aural/oral skills by training students in listening comprehension and speaking. The question “What is German?” is a starting point for discussions about identity, beliefs and cultural understanding. America in the German imagination will continue the conversation. Students will work collaboratively in class to draw conclusions via the articles, podcasts and videos that make up the cultural content of the syllabus.