Students in Beginning German 101-2 will continue to expand their active vocabulary in German, improve their understanding of grammatical concepts and further their oral and aural comprehension skills. Features of 101-2 include varied writing assignments (i.e. biographical essay), cultural presentations, poems by Goethe, as well as an interview with a native speaker or “Mystery Guest”.

PREREQUISITES
Completion of German 101-1 or equivalent placement