German 101-2
Beginning German

Students in Beginning German 101-2 will continue to expand their active vocabulary in German, improve their understanding of grammatical concepts and further their oral and aural comprehension skills. Students will be able to interview a guest in German and write a biographical essay by the end of the quarter. Features of 101-2 include varied writing assignments, cultural presentations, poems by Goethe, as well as an interview with a native speaker or “Mystery Guest”.

PREREQUISITES
Completion of German 101-1 or equivalent placement

DENISE MEUSER
MTWF 9-9:50 AM

DOMENIC DESOCIO
MTWF 12-12:50 PM

INGRID ZELLER
MTWF 3-3:50 PM